

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Elsight's Commander 360 is a video management platform enabling multiple scenarios control with the ability to dispatch video from the control center to operational unit in the field, commanders and additional law enforcement agencies. The system supports video chat, thus allowing direct contact with the field enabling quick decision making at the right time.

MAIN ADVANTAGES

- Shared hashtags - #Hashtag real-time events for quick investigation
- Plug & Play - Available in SaaS, PaaS and on-premises models
- Video Sharing - Dispatch real-time video from center to remote mobile and web clients
- World Wide Streaming - Online streaming to YouTube and Facebook live

Drones

Autonomous Vehicles

Medical

HLS & Transportation

Broadcast & Journalism

FEATURED HIGHLIGHTS

- Central based system combines recordings, video distribution on demand, and notification services
- Re-sell services to clients by creating separated partitioned environments
- SDK for PC, Mobile and Web applications
- Supports HEVC (H.265) video streams

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Central based system combines recordings, video distribution on demand, and notification services
Save center bandwidth by changing video quality per client's real interest
Easily scaled from tens of devices to thousands
Direct access from 3 different recordings sources - remote device, recordings servers, and local client PC
Specifically designed for fleets of mobile devices with quick reconnect, PUSH mode, batch operations and more
Realtime video streaming to cross-platform web clients with no extra plugin or ActiveX
Available in SaaS, PaaS and on-premises models
Full in-system data and video encryption
Supports HEVC (H.265) video streams
Online GPS location tracking
#Hashtag real-time events for quick investigation
Dispatch real-time video from center to remote PC, mobile and web clients
Online streaming to YouTube and Facebook live
Re-sell services to different clients by creating separated partitioned and sub-partitioned environments
Secured login with windows domain users
2 way voice communication with remote device
Custom and flexible «events & responses» rules set
Watch up to 64 real-time video & audio streams simultaneously
SDK for PC, Mobile and Web applications
Flexible and modular software license per services, users, and features